

Robert Half named to 2026 Best Workplaces™ in Ontario list

TORONTO, ON — Global talent solutions and business consulting firm Robert Half (NYSE: RHI) has been named to the 2026 Best Workplaces™ in Ontario list by Great Place To Work®, the global authority on workplace culture. This marks the second time Robert Half has received this honour.

This recognition reflects the people-first culture, collaboration and commitment to excellence demonstrated by Robert Half employees across Canada, making Robert Half a place where everyone feels respected, valued and inspired to do their best for clients, candidates and one another. To be eligible for the list, organizations must be Great Place To Work Certified™, meet a minimum employee threshold in Ontario and rank among the province's highest-scoring workplaces based on an employee survey that assesses workplace experiences related to credibility, respect, fairness, pride and camaraderie.

"We are incredibly proud to be recognized as a best workplace in Ontario," said Koula Vasilopoulos, senior managing director, Canada and South America, Robert Half. "This achievement is a testament to the positive workplace experience our employees help create every day. We are grateful for the feedback, which helps us continue to foster a workplace where people feel valued, connected and empowered to grow throughout their careers."

Robert Half has also been recognized globally in 2026 by Fortune as a World's Most Admired Company and by Forbes as one of the World's Best Employers and World's Top Companies for Women.
