Robert Half promotes David King to lead Executive Search across the Americas and Europe

TORONTO, ON — Robert Half (NYSE: RHI) has promoted David King to President of Executive Search for the Americas and Europe. In this role, he will lead the business across the U.S., Canada, South America and Europe, with a focus on driving how organizations find and hire C-suite and senior-level leaders.

Since joining Robert Half in 1995, King has held increasingly senior leadership roles across Eastern and Western Canada, Brazil, and Chile, most recently serving as Senior Managing Director for Canada and South America. Over the past three decades, he has led operations, developed teams and built client and candidate relationships across a range of markets, gaining valuable international leadership experience.

“David is a proven leader whose deep understanding of our business, markets and people has helped drive our success,” said Paul Gentzkow, President and CEO of Robert Half Talent Solutions. “His ability to develop strong teams and deliver exceptional service makes him the right person to lead our Executive Search business into its next chapter.”

King’s appointment reinforces Robert Half’s commitment to helping organizations meet their most critical leadership needs. He will build on the company’s established Executive Search practice to expand its reach and deliver the market expertise clients need to make important leadership hires.
